Sung by
Miss EDITH FURMEDGE

Someone Goes Home

Down every road each silent eventide,
Deep in the gloam,
Down every path of life, at fall of night,
Someone goes home.

Some pass with happy singing on their lips,
Some sadly roam,
Down every vale, up every starry hill,
Someone goes home.

And in that night, that last great night of all,
O'er wind and foam,
Angels will sing to comfort weeping hearts;
Someone goes home.

EDWARD LOCKTON.
